Da Citarsi Nella Risposta

My Dear Lord Bishop:

The Holy Father has learnt with very great pleasure of the Centenary celebration of the erection of the Diocese of Indianapolis. He is fully aware of the wonderful progress made under the guidance of your illustrious predecessors, particularly under the administration of the lamented Monsignor Chartrand, whose memory is held in benediction not only by catholics but even by non-catholics. He unites with you all in spirit in thanking Almighty God for all the benefits conferred upon your Diocese during the hundred years elapsed.

It is indeed no little satisfaction to His paternal heart to know of the zeal displayed by your Pastors and religious of both sexes in promoting frequent Communion and so many other works of piety.

The flourishing state of your Seminaries and the skillful training of its alumni afford great consolation to the Holy Father and augur well for the future.

His Holiness trusts that under the guidance of Your Lordship this portion of the vineyard of the Lord will continue in its progress, notwithstanding the severe crisis through which we are passing. He hopes and prays that following the footsteps of your Predecessor you may continue to rule over the Diocese with renewed zeal and confidence in the divine promises, and promote the various works connected with Catholic Action.

As a pledge of heavenly favor His Holiness most cordially bestows His special Blessing upon Your Lordship, the clergy, religious and faithful, as well as on your varied activities for God's glory.

With my personal congratulations and all good wishes,
I am,

My Dear Lord Bishop,

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

(Signed) E. Card. Pacelli,
Cardinal Secretary of State.

To His Lordship,
The Most Reverend Joseph Elmer Ritter,
Bishop of Indianapolis,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

The Diocese of Indianapolis

The Diocese of Vincennes (now Indianapolis) was established by decree of Gregory XVI, May 6, 1834, and the See was fixed at Vincennes. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes by the erection of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By a decree of Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the State was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the State north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph, and Warren Counties. The southern half of the State remained the Diocese of Vincennes. It embraces fifty counties in Indiana, covering 18,479 square miles, with a population, according to U. S. Census of 1930, of 1,619,079. It extends from the north line of Marion County and contiguous counties to the Ohio River, and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second Bishop of Vincennes, by Apostolic Brief, was permitted to establish his residence either at Vincennes Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; the See city, however, to remain at Vincennes. This permission was renewed to the fourth Bishop, with the exception of Lafayette.

On the appointment of the fifth Bishop, he was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, but the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By an Apostolic Brief dated March 23, 1898, the title of the Diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief the Patron Saint of the Diocese is to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the old Cathedral, Vincennes.

MEMORANDA

DECREE

"Elenchus fiat omnium mobilium ad ecclesiam et aedes parociales spectantium, ne difficultates oriantur occasione translationis novi Rectoris, et in libro ecclesiae servetur. Occasione institutionis novi Rectoris elenchus hujusmodi a Rectore locum cedente tradatur Decano Districtus, qui novo Rectori illum praesentabit." (Synod Vinc, IV, 1886, Tit. II No. 3.)

6. An excerpt is given here from the letter of the Most Reverend, the Bishop of the Diocese, which was addressed to the Reverend Pastors, July 25, 1935:

"... the Bishop of the Diocese with the approval of the Diocesan Board of Administration, hereby promulgates the following regulations:

"First—A strict accounting of all money received and expended must be kept in a proper set of books by the Reverend Pastor or Administrator. (Canon 1523, No. 5). If the Pastor chooses, he may do this through the help of a lay person. In all such cases we recommend that this person be a man. Failure to maintain proper financial records is indication sufficient of incompetency in parish administration, and is adequate cause for the removal of any Pastor neglectful in this important matter. (Can. 2147, No. 5; Can. 2157; Can. 2404, 2406).

"Second—Before any new buildings or major improvements be undertaken in any parish, even before an architect is employed, permission must be obtained by the Reverend Pastor from the Chancery in writing.

"Third—A major improvement is any improvement where the expenditure entailed, exceeds two percent of the gross income of the parish.

"Fourth—Every Reverend Pastor and Administrator must make an annual report to the faithful of his parish. This is not to be confused with the CHANCERY REPORT. Let the report of the Reverend Pastor be printed or mimeographed in sufficient number for distribution in the parish. This report should be a true and honest statement of the parish receipts and expenditures. If there is a parish debt have a statement of this fact in your parish report also."

These regulations shall become effective at once:

At the time of the change of the administration of a Parish, the outgoing Rector shall add the receipts of the current year to the balance on hand January 1 of that same year, and from this total shall deduct the disbursements of the current year. The balance on hand, together with the receipts and the vouchers for payments made, shall be handed over to the new Rector, who will give his signature and receipt therefor. If there be a deficit, the new Rector will give the retiring Rector a note or due bill covering the amount of the deficit. The account books are then to be continued for the fiscal year, regardless of the change in administration. In case of disagreement, the matter is to be referred to the Chancery with a full and complete statement of the difficulties.

The Pastor in charge of a Parish at the close of the fiscal year (December 31) is required to give an account in the Annual Report made to both Chancery and parish for the entire fiscal year (January 1 to December 31), and not merely from the time he takes charge. There must be therefore a complete understanding between the new Rector and the one retiring at the time of the change in the administration of the Parish.

7. "The Forty Hours Devotion shall be celebrated each year, with the greatest possible solemnity in all parochial and other churches where the Blessed Sacrament is habitually preserved, on the days fixed with the consent of the local Ordinary." (Canon 1275).

DIOCESAN TRIBUNAL

1. The Reverend Pastors and Administrators are obliged by their office to see to it that the faithful in their care are well instructed on the matter pertinent to the married state, as well as the legislation of the Church on this Sacrament. A well prepared instruction on these matters might profitably be given each year at the Lenten Season.

2. Petitions for special faculties and dispensations in all matrimonial cases of revalidation are to be addressed to the "Chancery Office, Attention, The Very Reverend Officialis." This officer of the Diocesan Tribunal will refer the case to the Most Reverend, the Bishop of the Diocese or to the tribunal of Pro-Synodal Judges. Consequent decision or instructions will be forwarded to the parties under excommunication.

3. Petitions for dispensations in either Mixed Religion or Disparity of Cult will be accepted for consideration only when the Cautiones are signed and enclosed with the petition. Furthermore the Reverend Pastor must add his recommendation, stating that he is morally certain of the sincerity of the petitioners who have signed the Cautiones. He will also give a canonical reason for the granting the dispensation.

The taxa required by the Sacred Congregation of the Sacraments is to be enclosed or a reason given why the offering cannot be sent.

When dispensation from the bans is sought by the prospective bride and groom, a grave and serious reason must be presented for the dispensation.

TAXA

"Taxa exquiri solita pro qualibet dispensatione, quamque R. P. D. Ordinarius exiget, nisi pro casuum diversitate sit moderanda aut dispensanda ob paupertatem oratorum aliasve justas causas, est $3.00."

- 1. The taxa for dispensation from the publication of the bans:
 - From three publications$5.00
 - From two publications 3.00
 - From one publication 1.00

The taxa received for these dispensations are given over to the Seminary Fund of the Diocese.

2. Pastors and Administrators may obtain the privilege of omitting the reading of the Passion in the second Mass on Palm Sunday ($2.50 S. C. R.)

MEMORANDA

3. Permission may be granted for the use of incense in the Missa Cantata on feasts of doubles of the second class and higher. ($2.50 S. C. R.)

4. The Holy Oils may be obtained at the Chancery on Thursday of Holy Week, the day on which they are consecrated. An offering is to be made by each Reverend Pastor and Administrator in person or through their representative when the Holy Oils are obtained.

5. Priests of the Diocese are to request and receive permission in writing when they wish to be absent from their place of duty. It is contrary to the ruling of the Sacred Canons of the Church for a Pastor to be absent from his parish for a week without the express permission of the Most Reverend, the Ordinary of the Diocese. A celebret may be obtained by applying to the Chancery Office.
