

Creed

- The learner will be able to present an understanding of the human need for God based on revelation and faith.
- The learner will be able to recognize God's love for us through experiences of being loved by others, especially within our families.
- The learner will be able to read, understand, and interpret, and apply Scripture to life.
- The learner will be able to that the Bible is a special book about God.
- The learner will be able to understand that Bible stories tell us about creation, our loving God, and the birth of Jesus.
- The learner will be able to illustrate a basic understanding of doctrine and dogma in light of the creed.
- The learner will be able to recognize the Trinity as God.
- The learner will be able to understand that we experience God as a loving Father.
- The learner will be able to understand that Jesus is God's son.
- The learner will be able to illustrate a basic understanding of Church.
- The learner will be able to that our Church celebrates Christmas and Easter.
- The learner will be able to understand that the church building is a sacred place where we must act appropriately.
- The learner will be able to demonstrate an appreciation for prayer as the primary way we come to know God and the community as the context for sharing faith within and beyond itself.
- The learner will be able to understand that our parish community is like a family.
- The learner will be able to exercise responsible stewardship for the gift of creation.

- The learner will be able to the beauty of God's creation.

Sacraments

- The learner will be able to demonstrate the importance of sacraments, with an emphasis on the centrality of the Eucharist, in the life of Catholics.
- The learner will be able to understand that we are welcomed into God's family at baptism.

Christian Living

- The learner will be able to examine a variety of Christian vocation as a response to the baptismal call.
- The learner will be able to understand that priests serve God in a special way.
- The learner will be able to acknowledge and affirm the dignity of the human person and community.
- The learner will be able to recognize life as sacred because it is God-given.
- The learner will be able to apply Catholic principles to interpersonal relations.
- The learner will be able to understand that Jesus wants us to share with others.
- The learner will be able to know, critique and apply social justice principles to personal and societal situations.
- The learner will be able to understand that our parish family works together to help others.
- The learner will be able to engage in service to the community (i.e. family, parish, local, national and global) in response to the Gospel call.
- The learner will be able to understand that we show our love of our family by helping at home.
- The learner will be able to develop a moral conscience informed by Church teaching.
- The learner will be able to understand that Jesus tells us to love and respect ourselves and others.

Prayer

- The learner will be able to know and participate in the Catholic tradition of prayer.
- The learner will be able to understand that prayer is talking to God.
- The learner will be able to understand that songs can be prayers.
- The learner will be able to understand that we pray before meals and give thanks to God.
- The learner will be able to recognize the sign of the Cross.