
Chaplaincies

Besides staffing parishes and schools in the archdiocese, the local Church has always recognized its responsibilities to care for the spiritual needs of those who avail themselves of other institutions located within the archdiocese, both those that are an integral part of the Church and those of the secular society. In particular, the archdiocese provides chaplains for Newman centers, hospitals, homes for the aged, and other public institutions. These chaplains are listed below:

Newman Centers

In addition to the Catholic centers of higher education within the archdiocese (see the “Educational Institutions” section), there are 11 other universities or colleges, either public or private. Priests working in the Newman Apostolate care for the spiritual needs of the Catholic students and faculty members of those colleges.

Educational Institutions

Education is an extremely important part of the mission of the Catholic Church in the archdiocese. Elementary schools are included in the “Parishes” section. This section contains information about the seminaries, colleges, high schools, and deanery centers in the archdiocese.

Seminaries

Saint Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology

200 Hill Dr., St. Meinrad, IN 47577 812-357-6611
Website: www.saintmeinrad.edu

Rev. Denis Robinson, OSB, President-Rector

Saint Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology offers initial and continuing education for priests, permanent deacons, and lay ministers. For priesthood students who have not attended a college seminary, a two-year pretheology program allows them to earn a Master of Arts (Catholic Philosophical Studies) degree. The four-year theology program leads to a Master of Divinity degree. Seminarians can also earn a Baccalaureate in Sacred Theology degree.

For lay students, the Master of Arts (Catholic Philosophical Studies) is offered, as well as a Master of Arts (Theology).

The Permanent Deacon Formation Program offers academic, spiritual, and professional formation to permanent deacon candidates and continuing education for deacons, in partnership with dioceses around the country.

Saint Meinrad also offers the Institute for Priests and Presbyterates for ongoing formation of priests and their presbyterates and the “One Bread, One Cup” summer youth conferences and College Ministerial Internship Program.

The school is owned and operated by the Benedictine monks of Saint Meinrad Archabbey.

Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary is the primary college seminary for archdiocesan collegiate seminarians and for collegiate seminarians from multiple dioceses in the Midwest. At Bishop Simon Bruté, seminarians earn a Bachelor of Arts degree in Catholic studies and complete their pretheology coursework in philosophy at Marian University.

The seminary is located one mile south of Marian University on Cold Spring Road. Seminarians take their classes at the university; however, their formation for priesthood takes place primarily at the seminary residence.
