

Always Loving Our Children

June 30, 2015 7:00 –8:30 pm

"Who am I to judge a gay person of goodwill who seeks the Lord? When God looks at a gay person, does he endorse the existence of this person with love or reject and condemn this person. We must consider the person."*Pope Francis

Feeling a bit overwhelmed by the sudden disclosure that your son or daughter is homosexual? Feeling alone yet knowing you are not? Come to Fatima for this opportunity to talk with other parents about the experience of learning your child is gay. Share your concerns, ask questions of each other, learn more about this complicated issue and share advice on how to continue to best support your son or daughter.

This particular evening is informal and will consist of sharing among those present. Resources will also be available.
