On Earth As It Is In Heaven

by Rick Wagner, Director

A friend recently shared a wonderful story of discernment and affirmation. To the casual observer it would have appeared to be a simple case of a man pursuing a job, and ultimately feeling the disappointment when his goal was not realized.

When the job opened, he was excited. In his mind, the job was a perfect fit --- it would match his skills and his desire to be of service to others with the needs of that particular community. And so he set his sights on getting that job. He prepared in every way he knew how and included his desire in his daily prayers. His family and friends, including myself, knew how much he wanted that job and were supportive and hopeful.

As things worked out, he did not get the job. His friends felt badly for him, many calling to say they were thinking of him. I was one such friend, and when I called him I was taken back a bit by his calm demeanor and sense of peace. I knew he really wanted that job, so I had to ask him why it was that I felt like he was cheering me up rather than the other way around.

“Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is --- His good, pleasing and perfect will.”

(Romans 12:2)

This is what he had to say:

“When I heard the news, I will admit I was disappointed...so I did spend a little time feeling sorry for myself. But when I went to church that evening my prayer was one of gratitude. The folks doing the hiring were good people and the interview process was affirming. A good man was hired. And all along, my prayers were not that I would get the job, but rather that God's will would be done.

When I got home, my wife met me at the door with a hug --- the kind of hug that tells you you're special and loved. My cell phone rang and my out-of-town daughter wanted to be sure I knew she was thinking of me and hoped I was OK. I later opened an e-mail from my college-age son, who detailed why I meant so much to him. He ended the e-mail by telling me I was his hero. Later that night when my teenage daughter came home, she sat down on the couch next to me and laid her head on my shoulder. She never said a word and didn't have to ---when she finally got up, I kissed her on the cheek and she had tears in her eyes. I have faith that God's will was fulfilled. It wasn't about a job. God's will for me right now is to know His love for me --- as expressed by the absolute love of my family and the incredible affirmation of so many friends who have contacted me since --- and it really becomes quite difficult to feel sorry for myself.”

A valuable lesson --- for him and for me. Might it be that God's will for all of us is simply to feel His love as expressed by those around us? That is indeed a peaceful thought.

Our Lady of Fatima Advent programs warmed the hearts of many...

Over 200 retreatants took part in programs offered during the Advent season. Here is a sampling of what those folks had to say:

“A wonderful day at Fatima to pray and reflect — along with the special blessing of being with and learning from Fr. John.”

“I enjoyed the insight given by Fr. John, explaining the significance of our Catholic faith...and he has such a down-to-earth, peaceful presence.”

—Fr. John McCaslin's “Recognizing Our Grace-Filled Lives”

“Richard is so gifted — what he says is powerful and invites us to reflection.”

“I enjoyed the silence, being by myself and listening to God.”

—Richard Smith's silent retreat, “What Have You Done With Your Garden?”

Our Lady of Fatima is even beautiful under a foot of snow

“What a beautiful evening. I have been coming to Fatima for years and I can truly say that the spirit of God was alive and well in the retreat house. The beautiful music, the intimacy of the chapel, the sharing of prayer and song...thank you! Please make this an annual event!”

—Dinner and a Concert with Tony Avellana

...and her Lenten retreats prepared us for the joy of Easter!

Nearly 350 people participated in our Lenten programming, beginning with our sold-out Matthew Kelly weekend and ending with the outdoor Stations of the Cross on Palm Sunday.

“I feel like I was given a road map with detailed directions to get where I want and need to go with my life.”

“I enjoyed the relaxed atmosphere and the chance for deep thought and prayer. It was a great opportunity to get away from the chaos of everyday life...especially at such a beautifully spiritual place.”

“Franciscan Spirituality 101”

Sr. Norma Rocklage, OSF, teacher at Marian College in Indianapolis

Another in our monthly 'Sunday Night 101' series. Franciscan Spirituality has been characterized as a Spirituality giving joy to the world. Drawn from the lives of St. Francis and St. Clare, Franciscan spirituality centers around individual persons with their historical and human limitations, modeled on the human Jesus who was the Christ Incarnate. It is sacramental in that all created things are also seen as signs pointing to God as creator. In Franciscan spirituality, material things are perceived as 'footprints' of the creator -- God is at home on our earth, present at our kitchen table as well as in our churches and chapels. 'Franciscan spirituality provides guidelines for a meaningful life through prayer, community service. Embracing Franciscan spirituality means to view persons as good, the gifts of a loving generous creator, a creator who gives 'joy to the world.'

Program begins at 7:00 p.m. and concludes at approximately 9:00 p.m.

There is no cost for this program, but good will offerings are appreciated.
