

Join us for the local archdiocesan solemn observance of Roe v. Wade in Indianapolis on Monday, January 23 2012, from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

The observance begins with noon Mass in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral

- The main celebrant for the Mass will be Msgr. Joseph F. Schaedel, pastor at St. Luke Church in Indianapolis.
- Following the Mass, participants will carry signs provided by the Office for Pro-Life Ministry.
- The prayerful and peaceful march will be conducted along North Meridian Street. The statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe will be carried in procession.
  - The rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be recited.
- The Rally for life will be conducted in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral. The keynote speaker will be Liz Carl.

Call the Pro-Life Office for more information. See reverse side of the flyer to respond to the invitation to participate in the local solemn observance of Roe v. Wade.

Liz Carl

Liz Carl, a graduate at the University of Louisville and a rape survivor, will share her story of hope and healing after she gave birth to her son instead of choosing abortion. Liz speaks at pro-life events and on college campuses across the nation and internationally. In 2010 she spoke at the “United Nations Conference on the Status of Women.” As the keynote speaker at the 2011 March for Life in Brussels, Liz addressed 4,000 Europeans on the dignity and sanctity of human life. About her rape and decision to not end her pregnancy, Liz stated, “It made me feel ashamed. It made me feel disgusted, but I think the worst thing for a rape victim, is an abortion. Every woman is strong enough to love her baby .... It’s a travesty that a child must die.”
