

Creed

- The learner will be able to present an understanding of the human need for God based on revelation and faith.
- The learner will be able to understand that all things are gifts of God.
- The learner will be able to read, understand, and interpret, and apply Scripture to life.
- The learner will be able to understand that the Bible tells us about creation, the life of Jesus, and that caring for others is living God's love.
- The learner will be able to illustrate a basic understanding of doctrine and dogma in light of the creed.
- The learner will be able to recognize the Trinity as God.
- The learner will be able to understand that God made all things because God loves us.
- The learner will be able to understand that Mary and Joseph were Jesus' parents on Earth.
- The learner will be able to understand that Jesus is a good friend full of tenderness and love.
- The learner will be able to illustrate a basic understanding of Church.
- The learner will be able to understand that our Church celebrates the liturgical seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter.
- The learner will be able to demonstrate an appreciation for prayer as the primary way we come to know God and the community as the context for sharing faith within and beyond itself.
- The learner will be able to understand that we respect others at liturgy.
- The learner will be able to understand that the church building is a sacred place where the People of God gather.
- The learner will be able to exercise responsible stewardship for the gift of creation.

- The learner will be able to recognize that all of God's creation needs care.

Sacraments

- The learner will be able to demonstrate the importance of sacraments, with an emphasis on the centrality of the Eucharist, in the life of Catholics.
- The learner will be able to participate in the liturgy.

Christian Living

- The learner will be able to examine a variety of Christian vocation as a response to the baptismal call.
- The learner will be able to understand that people in our church community serve God in many ways.
- The learner will be able to acknowledge and affirm the dignity of the human person and community.
- The learner will be able to accept and appreciate ourselves as unique creations and special children of God.
- The learner will be able to understand that we are lovable.
- The learner will be able to apply Catholic principles to interpersonal relations.
- The learner will be able to understand that we love our families.
- The learner will be able to understand that we love our neighbors.
- The learner will be able to understand that we share with others.
- The learner will be able to understand that we care for other people.
- The learner will be able to know, critique and apply social justice principles to personal and societal situations.
- The learner will be able to show concern for all people, especially those in need.

- The learner will be able to engage in service to the community (i.e. family, parish, local, national and global) in response to the Gospel call.
- The learner will be able to help our family and friends.
- The learner will be able to develop a moral conscience informed by Church teaching.
- The learner will be able to show love by how we act.
- The learner will be able to understand the difference between right and wrong actions.
- The learner will be able to examine a variety of Christian vocation as a response to the baptismal call.

Prayer

- The learner will be able to know and participate in the Catholic tradition of prayer.
- The learner will be able to say simple prayers in the morning, evening, and at mealtime.
- The learner will be able to understand that we sometimes pray spontaneous prayers.
- The learner will be able to pray together as a class, school community, family, and Church.