Catholic Charities Bloomington COVID-19 Update

Catholic Charities Bloomington continues to provide the quality services that our clients expect during this difficult time. The staff is working from home and utilizing telephone and telehealth services to interact with clients and help them with the feelings of stress, depression and anxiety they are feeling due to the COVID-19 outbreak. They are adapting to these new methods of providing therapy and want to provide services to all our clients even if they cannot pay during this crisis.

Catholic Charities Bloomington was one of 16 organizations to be granted funds by the United Way of Monroe County to assist in providing services during this difficult time. Catholic Charities Bloomington will continue to provide accessible and affordable mental health counseling through and after this pandemic.

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities Bloomington,

We hope that this finds you and your family healthy and well. Know that you are in our prayers during this difficult time. We continue to serve those most in need the best we can during the COVID-19 pandemic. Many of our programs are still seeing clients and working to provide help and create hope for those that are struggling.

Our staff continues to work hard to bring light into the lives of our neighbors who are most vulnerable. The health and safety of our staff, volunteers and clients is our highest priority and we are taking all of the necessary precautions to keep everyone safe.

As we respond to the ever changing situation on regarding COVID-19, our plans will continue to evolve to meet the needs of our clients. We have been working with the other Catholic Charities agencies in the Archdiocese, State and Catholic Charities USA to provide the help and support people need. During times like these, we are aware of the importance of our mission to provide charity and compassion to each of our clients in order to promote the sanctity and dignity of their lives.

The love and support that you have shown us has been a blessing during this time of uncertainty. We know that through God's grace and with your help and support we will come through this crisis.
