Revenues
United Way Contributions
388,108
Unrestricted Gifts
257,542
Investment Income
2,613,685
Revenues received
7,997,088
Other Non-Cash Contributions
280,527
Gifts
52,062
Special Events Fees
686,527
Total Revenues
8,882,108*

Expenses
Salaries & Benefits
366,832
Occupancy
551,476
Professional Fees
681,066
Other
890,584
Postage & Related
55,462
Property Insurance
42,552
Total Expenses
3,422,029 (49.15%)

Net Profit
1,449,695 (20.33%)

Revenues
Profit & Loss Statements
Fiscal Year Ended 6/30/2012

From the Agency Director
Dear Friends of Catholic Charities,
Recent years have shown us how difficult it can be for an individual, family, or senior on a limited income to survive challenging circumstances like homelessness, hunger and job loss.

Catholic Charities in Indianapolis is often a place where many turn for help and we consider it a joy and privilege to be here for our community in times of need. Our mission is described in a recent letter from the Holy Father Benedict XVI, entitled "Charity as a Means of Salvation," as we quote from the Letter to the Hebrews: "Let us be concerned for one another, to stir a response in love and good works.”

In Fiscal Year 2011-2012, we were inspired to respond in love and good works through new ideas in nutrition, housing, employment assistance and other services, resulting in positive outcomes in the lives of those in need. Whether at a food pantry or emergency shelter, or as a job loss and a health crisis or an addiction, the death of a family member or a prison sentence to a family such as the loss of a job can put children. Sometimes a single storm in a family such as the loss of a job can put children. Sometimes a single storm in a family can shatter dreams, or in other times storms combine, such as a job loss and a health crisis or an addiction, the death of a family member or a prison sentence to cause as much destruction as a tornado.

A Forecast of Hope
This summer's oppressively high temperatures and incredible dry conditions following the disastrous spring tornadoes surely demonstrate our world of extremes. The world over, we witness the extremes of Mother Nature and the harsh realities on people's lives. In the same way, economic storms right here in Indiana bring about a similar crisis in the lives of many. Households—most notably the lives of our children. Sometimes a single storm in a family such as the loss of a job can put children. Sometimes a single storm in a family can shatter dreams, or in other times storms combine, such as a job loss and a health crisis or an addiction, the death of a family member or a prison sentence to cause as much destruction as a tornado. Most of us have the resources to weather many of the storms that come our way— we have family and friends, perhaps a savings account, good health insurance, a good education or the skills to find a new job quickly. For many of our neighbors in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, they suffer from a lack of resources of every kind.

What a blessing it is for the thousands of individuals and families that make their way to Catholic Charities, St. Vincent de Paul, our Catholic hospitals and many of our parish outreach programs every year to gain the resources and the support that they need to get through their personal storms— creating a forecast for HOPE!

We are sustained by an accomplished team of staff, volunteers, agency council members and financial supporters. We have witnessed the generosity of so many throughout the year, and it gives us great hope even in these extraordinarily challenging times. We want to thank each and every one of you for your generous giving of time, talent, and financial support to Catholic Charities in Indianapolis. We all participate in “charity as a means of salvation.”

We find continued joy in our clients’ accomplishments and the fellowship of our volunteers, donors and staff toward a common goal. We pledge to continue these efforts in Fiscal Year 2012-2013.

We are inspired to respond in love and good works through new ideas in nutrition, housing, employment assistance and other services, resulting in positive outcomes in the lives of those in need. Whether at a food pantry or emergency shelter, or as a job loss and a health crisis or an addiction, the death of a family member or a prison sentence to a family such as the loss of a job can put children.
With our services, we can offer more than just health care. We also provide access to the resources available to them and their families. In 2011, more than 50,000 families and individuals were served through our programs.

Resident’s Rights

Resident’s rights are a guarantee of health and well-being. These rights include access to services, complaint procedures, and information about the organization and its services. Residents also have the right to be treated with respect and dignity.

Programs for Adults

Adults are an essential part of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Mental Health Services
- Substance Abuse Services
- Housing Services
- Employment Services
- Nutrition Services

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as children, seniors, and immigrants.

Programs for Children

Children are an important part of our society. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Adoption Services
- Foster Care
- Juvenile Justice Services
- Child Welfare Services
- Family Support Services

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those with special needs.

Programs for Seniors

Seniors are an important part of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Home Care Services
- Adult Day Services
- Senior Centers
- Transportation Services
- Meals on Wheels

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those living in poverty or with disabilities.

Programs for Immigrants

Immigrants are an important part of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Immigration Services
- Refugee Services
- Citizenship Services
- Language Programs

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as refugees and asylum seekers.

Programs for Families

Families are the backbone of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Parenting Programs
- Childcare Services
- Family Support Services
- Foster Care

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those with high conflict.

Programs for Youth

Youth are an important part of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Youth Services
- Juvenile Justice Services
- Drug Prevention Programs
- Food Pantries

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those in poverty or with disabilities.

Programs for Veterans

Veterans are an important part of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- VA Benefits
- Home Care Services
- Employment Services
- Housing Services

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those living in poverty or with disabilities.

Programs for Individuals

Individuals are an important part of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Mental Health Services
- Substance Abuse Services
- Employment Services
- Nutrition Services

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those living in poverty or with disabilities.

Programs for Special Populations

Special populations are a vulnerable part of our community. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Special Needs Services
- Home Care Services
- Employment Services
- Nutrition Services

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those living in poverty or with disabilities.

Programs for Communities

Communities are an important part of our society. We offer various programs to support their needs, including

- Community Development
- Economic Development
- Housing Services
- Transportation Services

In addition, we provide services for specific populations, such as those living in poverty or with disabilities.