

“Be merciful, even
as your Father is merciful”
(Lk 6:36)

Nov. 5-6, 2016: We pray for those who are in prison within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and around the world. That they may seek and receive God's mercy.

Pope Francis has declared an extraordinary jubilee, a Holy Year of Mercy, to begin Dec. 8th, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, 2015 and will conclude on Nov. 20th, 2016 with the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

The Jubilee of Mercy is a time of reconciliation. “May the message of mercy reach everyone, and may no one be indifferent to the call to experience mercy” - Pope Francis

Throughout the year, Pope Francis has designated special days to pray for those who express mercy through tangible ways. To learn more, visit www.archindy.org/holyyearofmercy

“Be merciful, even
as your Father is
merciful”
(Lk 6:36)

Nov. 5-6, 2016: We pray for those who are in prison within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and around the world. That they may seek and receive God's mercy.

Pope Francis has declared an extraordinary jubilee, a Holy Year of Mercy, to begin Dec. 8th, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, 2015 and will conclude on Nov. 20th, 2016 with the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

The Jubilee of Mercy is a time of reconciliation. “May the message of mercy reach everyone, and may no one be indifferent to the call to experience mercy” - Pope Francis

Throughout the year, Pope Francis has designated special days to pray for those who express mercy through tangible ways. To learn more, visit www.archindy.org/holyyearofmercy