August 29- December 12, 2019: "The Third Option" for Hurting Marriages

The Third Option is a 14-week group program to build better marriages by developing understanding, sensitivity and trust while learning more effective speaking and listening skills. For hurting couples who only see two options – painful endurance or divorce – The Third Option means reconciliation. The group meets on Thursdays at 7pm at Guerin Catholic High School in Carmel, IN from August 29 – December 12. For more information, go to www.carmelthirdoption.org.

October – Domestic Violence Awareness Month

In conjunction with Respect Life month, the Bishops of the United States ask us to promote the dignity of life by speaking out against domestic violence which may affect up to 1/3 of our congregations. In 2002, the document "When I call for Help: A Pastoral Response to Domestic Violence Against Women" was promoted. There are resources for clergy and laity available at www.usccb.org/comestic-violence, including flyers that you can post around your parish.

Ocotber 25-27, 2019: 3rd Annual Peace in the Mourning: A Christ Focused Widow's Retreat, Our Lady of Fatima House

Jennifer Trapuzzano found herself to be a widow less than a year after being married and just a few weeks before their first daughter was to be born. As a faithful Catholic, Jennifer clung to Christ, who has carried her though many dark times. She learned that "even in the darkest times, there's always a light."

While grieving has never been easy, she found understanding, companionship, and comfort by relating with other widows. Her hope is that through Peace in the Mourning, faithful widows can come together for hope and healing as they remember their beloved spouses.

The 3rd Annual Peace in the Mourning Retreat has been planned for you by widows who want others to experience the peace they found in this retreat experience last year.

Location: Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House – 5353 East 56th Street, Indianapolis IN Cost: $200 – includes private overnight accommodation sfor 2 nights, all meals and the program. Time: Program starts at 6:30 pm on Friday, October 25th and ends on Sunday, October 27th by 1:00 pm To register go to www.archindy.org/fatima, or contact registrar, Khristine Meyer, at (317) 545-7681 ext. 101.

November 16, 2019: 2019 Corrections Ministry Conference-The Face of Corrections Ministry

Who should attend? Clergy, lay volunteers, those in corrections professions, and anyone interested in learning more about Corrections Ministry. Parish teams especially encouraged to attend.

The day will begin with a welcome from Dcn. Marc Kellams, Coordinator of Corrections Ministry for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, followed by Msgr. William F. Stump, Vicar General of the Archdiocese, who will add his own words of welcome and a few comments. We will then pray together the Liturgy of the Hours. The day will include interactive concurrent breakout sessions, addressing the nuts and bolts issues of interest to corrections ministry volunteers. There will also be a panel discussion of former inmates on their experiences while incarcerated, and how ministry volunteers have affected their lives.

The Keynote Speaker will be Sr. Helen Prejean, CSJ, of Dead Man Walking fame, and leading advocate for the abolition of the death penalty. Sr. Helen writes, "The death penalty is one of the great moral issues facing our country, yet most people rarely think about it and very few of us take the time to delve deeply enough into this issue to be able to make an informed decision about it." She will review the Church's evolving position on the death penalty, and will invite you to take that time, to learn, to explore and to reflect. Books written by Sr. Helen will be available for purchase.

No fee for the conference, but a free-will offering will be accepted. A complimentary lunch will be provided. Registration begins at 8:00 am with the program beginning promptly at 9:00 am.

You will need to complete a separate registration for each individual attending.

"BEING & BELONGING"

A RETREAT FOR SEPARATED AND DIVORCED CATHOLICS OCTOBER 4-6, 2019

Presented by

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF INDIANAPOLIS OFFICE OF MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE AT OUR LADY OF FATIMA RETREAT HOUSE

RETREAT SCHEDULE

Friday, October 4 – Sunday, October 6

Check-in will be on Friday, 6:00-6:45 p.m.

The retreat program begins at 7:00 p.m.

The retreat will conclude on Sunday at 1:30 p.m. after celebrating the Holy Mass and enjoying some Lunch.

ABOUT THE RETREAT

Come to Fatima and be at peace in the knowledge of God's love for you. This retreat offers a safe place to wrestle with your feelings about divorce and find ways to heal and grow.

Discover anew that God is with you in your struggles and in your hope. Listen to the stories of those who have walked the path of divorce and healing before you. Share your own experiences when you are ready, and experience sincere compassion.

This will be an important step, no matter where you are in your healing process. Retreat facilitators will lead you through activities designed to help heal old wounds, find new joy, and develop new friendships. The program is structured, yet allows time for private meditation, prayer and rest.

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

A team of men and women who have experienced divorce and are actively involved in divorce ministry will share how they found hope and healing after their marriages ended.

The team will be accompanied by Fr. Jim Farrell.

Fr. Jim serves as a priest of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Ordained in Rome by Pope Paul VI in 1975, Fr. Jim has served in a variety of pastoral assignments and has been a frequent retreat presenter for more than 30 years at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House where he now serves as Director of Mission Advancement, Fr. Jim is also pastor of St. Pius X Parish in Indianapolis and presents parish missions across the archdiocese and for other parishes in the midwest. He also served for over 15 years as chaplain to Separated. Divorced and Remarried Catholics (SDRC).

RETREAT ICON

In the Gospel of John, Jesus meets the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well and promises her living waters.

Jesus wants to give us the living waters of his grace and love. Will you answer his invitation?

Cover image: "L'incontro di Gesu con la Samaritana."

ALL ARE WELCOME

You will be with others who will listen without judgment and rejoice with you in the healing power of God's mercy. While this is a ministry of the Catholic Church in Indianapolis, people of all faiths can benefit from this retreat.

WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID

"Coming to retreat was one of the hardest, yet best decisions I ever made." - Marie V.

"I was at a low point, I felt lost and my faith was weak. I left the retreat with new friends and a renewed trust in God." - Mike E.

"Anger, hate, fear, bitterness, and a myriad of negative thoughts filled my days. This retreat changed my heart." - Anna C.

"My whole life was planned out, then one day everything changed. I felt alone, heartbroken, and shocked. Fr. Jim's compassion and support gave me hope." - Judy G.

"I was glad to see several other men as both team members and men hurting like me at the retreat. It was a great experience and my faith grew." -Tony G.

"I never realized how much compassion the church has toward those of us who end up divorced. I left feeling even better about being Catholic." - Helen G.

What are some causes of Pulmonary Fibrosis?

- Some medications
- Radiation to the chest
- Autoimmune diseases Rheumatoid Arthritis Scleroderma and others
- Occupational exposure Asbestos Silica and others

- Environmental exposure Mold spores Caged birds and others
- In some cases it is genetic
- In some cases there is no known cause - this is known as: Idiopathic Pulmonary Fibrosis

If you or a loved one has been affected by pulmonary fibrosis, you are invited to attend our support group. Participating in a support group may improve your emotional well-being and have a positive impact on your health by offering you an opportunity to connect with others who are facing similar experiences, obtain practical information, and to receive support.

Support groups can also be a valuable resource for your caregivers, other family members, and friends. Please remember, a support group should not replace treatment from your doctor.

NOT EVERYONE BREATHES EASY!

RETREAT Щ ABOUT T

Jennifer Trapuzzano found herself to be a widow less than a year after being married and just a few weeks before their first daughter was to be born. As a faithful Catholic, Jennifer clung to Christ, who has carried her though many dark times. She learned that "even in the darkest times, there's always a light."

While grieving has never been easy, she found understanding, companionship, and comfort by relating with other widows. Her hope is that through Peace in the Mourning, faithful widows can come together for hope and healing as they remember their beloved spouses.

The 3rd Annual Peace in the Mourning Retreat has been planned for you by widows who want others to experience the peace they found in this retreat experience last year. 3rd Annual Peace in the Mourning Retreat Information: Dates: October 25-27, 2019 Cost: $200—Private Room

> Location: Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House 5353 East 56th Street, Indianapolis, IN 46226

Who can attend?

Widows of all ages and backgrounds. While the retreat will include elements of our Catholic faith, widows of all faiths are welcome to join on this journey of hope and healing. The program starts on October 25th at 6:30 pm and ends on October 27th by 1 pm after lunch.

Coping with Major Illness and Grief as Catholics

Sr. Connie Kramer, SP, ministers as a Retreat/Spiritual Director, a Grief Specialist, and a Consultant for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, Indiana. She holds a Master of Science degree in Mathematics from Indiana State University, a Masters of Arts degree in Pastoral Ministry from Trinity College, and professional certification in Group Facilitation/Group Counseling as well as professional certification as a Grief Specialist and as a Spiritual Director.

Carol Applegate, BSN, MSEd, MSN, JD, is a registered nurse and an experienced elder law attorney. As a family caregiver herself, Carol founded The Caring for the Caregiver, a conference addressing the needs of family caregivers coping with the physical, emotional and financial challenges of caring for a disabled or aging loved one. Her background assists her in providing a more holistic approach when dealing with families in crisis and planning for the future.

Do you struggle with major or serious illness or are you the caretaker or loved one of someone who does? Have you recently lost a loved one? Join us for a discussion about how to face the challenges of illness and grief as Catholics.

You and your family deserve to be safe and loved in your home.

Sometimes bad things happen in good families. Yelling, hitting, shoving, insults, not sharing income.

If you are experiencing or using these behaviors at home or living in fear, change is possible. You can be safe and bring peace to your family.

"Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

– Matthew 11:28

Local help is available:

Usted y su familia merecen estar seguros y ser amados en su casa.

A veces suceden cosas malas a las buenas familias: gritar, golpear, empujar, insultar, no compartir ingresos.

Si usted está experimentando o usando estos comportamientos en casa o vive con miedo, el cambio es posible. Usted puede estar a salvo y traer paz a su familia.

Vengan a mí todos los que están afligidos y agobiados, y yo los aliviaré –Mateo 11:28
