May 8, 2018: 17th Annual Mission Day - End of Life Conference: Moral Guidelines, Health Care Decisions, & Pastoral Care

Join us as we explore issues pertaining to end of life. Presenting the day are experts from the field including Fr. Ryan McCarthy, who will share the Catholic Church's guidelines on critical end of life decisions, and Dr. Colleen C. Brown, a physician certified in family medicine and Hospice & Palliative medicine, who will compare the program benefits and patient qualifications needed for eligibility into hospice and palliative treatment programs. Melissa Wilson, MSW, LCSW will offer information on specific resources and skills which participants can share with their family, friends, community, and parish.

Concluding the day, Fr. Jim Farrell will present on the pastoral care of patients and their families facing end of life, followed by an interactive panel discussion on witness statements from parishioners who faced a loss and how they experienced the ministry of consolation in their parishes.

The Conference will be held at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House (5353 East 56th Street, Indianapolis IN, 46226) on Tuesday, May 08, 2018 from 8:30 am – 4:00 pm. 3801 LANCASTER: AMERICAN TRAGEDY

KERMIT GOSNELL TAKES THE STAND ON NOVEMBER 10TH, 2015

In 2010 the offices of Dr. Kermit Gosnell were raided by the Philadelphia Police Dept. and the FBI. The abortionist was suspected of selling prescription drugs illegally. However, what investigators discovered upon entering the clinic was unthinkable. Through exclusive interviews with detectives, crime scene investigators, journalists, victims and Dr. Gosnell himself, "3801 Lancaster" tells the story of violence, greed and a cover up that shook the nation.
