The Office of Stewardship and Development of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and the Lake Institute on Faith & Giving invites you and your ministry teams to participate in a seminar experience that could change the way you and your parish approach giving and generosity.

Creating Congregational Cultures of Generosity (CCCG) is an interactive seminar demonstrating how pastors and ministry leaders can unearth and energize parish generosity by exploring the significant and necessary steps to creating lasting cultural change within a parish. This process has been experienced by 3,550+ parishes.

This course is intended for those who:
- Believe in their parish’s capacity for greater generosity;
- Have a desire to become more comfortable with money;
- Are willing to redefine giving in your parish;
- Understand giving to include service, social networks and the sharing of ideas and professional expertise.

Seminar Goals:
- To map the new landscape of parish giving.
- To provide tools to help you navigate the new landscape of giving.
- To help build a culture of generosity unique to your parish’s needs and challenges.

Audience:
CCCG is designed for parish teams – made up of pastors/PLCs, pastoral administrators, business managers, parish council leadership, finance council leadership, and stewardship committee leadership.

Audience size: 20-40 participants: Parish teams of 3-5 (maximum 5) per parish will attend three one-day seminars at the sites below.

Format: Course includes participation in 3 one-day sessions.

TESTIMONIAL

At first glance, the program seemed to be about money, but it's really more about pastoral ministry and relationships. If the minister believes and conveys that in word and action and becomes involved in the lives of his parishioners, they become "invested" and involved as well."

Fr. Carlton Beever, Pastor
St. Mary Church, Indianapolis
Participant in a Lake Institute Program

Topics covered:

1. The altered landscape of religious giving
2. The generosity toolkit
3. Generosity: a key to parish renewal
4. Generosity as leadership with theological integrity
5. Donor sensitivity
6. The roots of generosity: transparency and accountability
7. Nurturing generosity: a plan of implementation

Cost and Registration:

The cost will be $100 per parish (to cover the cost for hospitality for all three one-day seminars). The main registration expense will be covered by the Empowering Pastoral Leaders Project of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.
