Huber Orchard and Winery

A picturesque, rolling countryside known as Starlight, Indiana, is home to the Huber Orchard and Winery. The State of Indiana designated the farm as a "Hoosier Homestead Farm," a recognition reserved for farms which have been in the same family for over 100 years.

The Abbey of Gethsemani

Founded nearly 150 years ago, is home to a religious community of Trappist monks. Hospitality maintains a prominence in living the monastic tradition. As outlined in St. Benedict's Rule for Monasteries, the guest represents Christ and has a claim on the welcome and care of the community. The Abbey of Gethsemani has received guests since 1848.

St. Meinrad Archabbey

We will visit St. Meinrad Archabbey. Devotion to Our Lady of Einsiedeln dates to the days of St. Meinrad himself, a monk of the Benedictine monastery at Maria Einsiedeln Abbey in Switzerland.

Stephen Foster – The Musical features the life of America's most famous composer. More than 50 of Foster's melodies are heard in this production, during which the audience is transported back in time to the romantic and colorful mid-nineteenth century America.

St. Joseph Proto-Cathedral

Built in 1819 is the first Catholic cathedral built west of the Alleghenies. Architect John Rogers used native trees and clay for the bricks and pillars. As you walk through this magnificent building, you'll find historic paintings donated by Pope Leo XII and Francis I, King of the Two Sicily's.
