

Catholic Purchasing Services

A Nonprofit Service of the Catholic Church

Dear Pastor

As you may be aware, the Archdiocesan Purchasing Department scaled back operation on July 1. With that in mind, please allow me to take this opportunity to introduce Catholic Purchasing Services. We offer many of the products you would have purchased from Steve James, we just offer them on a national level to Catholic and other religious institutions across the US.

Steve recently contacted our office about the annual publications that your churches would purchase from him at this time of year. He asked if we would send information on our offering of these products.

Found below are prices for the annual publications from Liturgy Training Publications and Ordos.
