

Interested in donating to provide a scholarship for a child to attend the school of his choice AND receive a 50% credit on your state tax liability?

It's as easy as 1-2-3!

1 Fill out the IQE Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO) donation form or visit www.i4qed.org to donate online.

- An individual or business can donate by check, stock/securities or credit/debit card.
- There are no limits to how much or how often a donor can contribute.
- Those with an Indiana tax liability will receive a 50 percent credit against their state taxes.
- Unused tax credits may be carried forward for up to nine years. No refunds are available for unused credits.
- No more than $7.5M in tax credits may be awarded through the program during the state fiscal year (July 1, 2014 - June 30, 2015).
- Donors may be eligible for up to a 35 percent federal tax deduction.
- Donors may direct their donation to fund scholarships at a specific school but not a specific student.

2 Mail your completed SGO donation form along with your check or stock/security information to:

Institute for Quality Education
101 W. Ohio St. Suite 700
Indianapolis, IN 46204

- The Institute for Quality Education (IQE) is a 501(c)3 charitable organization authorized by the state of Indiana to administer the school scholarship tax credit program.
- IQE partners with eligible schools to raise funds and award scholarships to eligible students in grades K-12.

3 Receive your tax credit certification number and a receipt for each donation.

- Upon receipt of a completed donor form and donation, IQE will request your tax credit certification number from the Indiana Department of Revenue.
- Typically, 7-10 business days after receiving your donation, IQE will mail you a tax credit certification number to be used when filing your state taxes and a letter of receipt for your donation.

FOR QUALITY EDUCATION

SGO Donation Form
